Dear parents and carers,

Thank you Steve

This week our bus had an unfortunate encounter with a wallaby on Gwynne Road. Thankfully, our skilled bus driver managed to avoid any disastrous consequences and kept our precious Jiggi Gems safe. We want to thank Steve for being such a friendly and caring driver and for always looking out for our wellbeing. We know that the burden of keeping our gorgeous Jiggi Gems safe weighs heavily on his shoulders and that driving on these narrow roads can be quite stressful. Thank you Steve.

In the classroom

At our Life Education session we learned its Ok to say No if a good friend asks to play with you. We experienced that you can get more friends by being friendly – Sol

At Life Education we learnt about cyber bullying, relationships, friendships problems and how to solve them -Austin

At Life Education I learnt that the heart pumps blood - Jahmin

At Life Education I learnt you should always talk to your friends if you are fighting to sort it out- Lilly-Eva

At Life Education I learnt that medicines aren't the best thing to help you get better - Miley

Students are preparing for their public speaking competition. Please discuss your child's speech with them.

Lake Ainsworth

A reminder that our Opal's excursion is coming up so please ensure final payment has been made for this.
